

Noisy Words - Vasilia statement

This piece is short mash up of different newspaper headlines from around the world. Every member of the Noisy Writings workshop team was recorded reading a different headline from numerous newspapers from around the globe in different languages.

The outcome from mixing and cutting the different languages, voices and press releases was this piece.

I really like this piece because it was sooo nice that everyone took part in it and I had all these different voices to mix and cut and I truly had a great time making it, but I don't think that I will ever be completely satisfied with my pieces. I always feel that they could have been better.
